

has served this body with integrity and dedication. I join my colleagues on both sides of the aisle today in bidding him farewell.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SPRATT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on this tribute to the gentleman from California (Mr. DELLUMS).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from South Carolina?

There was no objection.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2625, RONALD REAGAN WASHINGTON NATIONAL AIRPORT

Mr. GOSS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 105-411) on the resolution (H. Res. 344) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2625) to redesignate Washington National Airport as "Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport," which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 107, CONCERNING ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS, AND SANCTIONS PAYABLE BY THE WHITE HOUSE HEALTH CARE TASK FORCE

Mr. GOSS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 105-412) on the resolution (H. Res. 345) providing for consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 107) expressing the sense of the Congress that the award of attorney's fees, costs, and sanctions of $285,864.78 ordered by United States District Judge Royce C. Lamberth on December 18, 1997, should not be paid with taxpayer funds, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

FURTHER TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE RONALD DELLUMS AND THE NAMING OF RONALD REAGAN WASHINGTON NATIONAL AIRPORT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 7, 1997, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. DELAY) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the Majority Leader.

Mr. DeLAY. Mr. Speaker, I came down to the floor to take a special order to talk about another Ronald; but I am going to take this opportunity to talk about this RONALD that I have come to respect, a gentleman that, when he was Chairman of the then Arms Services Committee, was one of the most giving, open, and stalwart, a real stalwart man when he was Chairman.

I was shocked this morning. I knew it was coming, but I was shocked this morning as I was sitting in that chair waiting for 1-minute, and the Chair read the gentleman's resignation.

It came home that the gentleman from California (Mr. DELLUMS) is actually leaving this House. We are losing one of its finest Members, a Member that I have great respect for, because he always did his homework, was so articulate and eloquent on this floor.

He always got my attention when he stood up and took the microphone. He would stop every Member in their tracks to hear what he had to say, and there are very few Members that have served in this body that can claim the respect that both sides of the aisle had for the gentleman from California.

And the incredible reputation that the gentleman from California (Mr. DELLUMS) has brought to this House; he has elevated this House. He has elevated the distinction of this House by serving here, and this House will greatly miss him when he leaves.

Mr. Speaker, I am glad to yield to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. KASICH).

Mr. KASICH. Mr. Speaker, let me just say that there really are not enough minutes here for me to speak, and I am going to have to visit my friend in his office, my great friend, Mr. DELLUMS.

He and I started hanging out together. That early day, I was very much alone, as you remember, RON, because a lot of Republicans could not figure out why you and I had become such great friends; and it is so amazing to see so many Republicans come to the floor and salute you.

The fact is that we relate to each other best when we can touch each other's hearts; and it really does not matter in the Congress of the United States if, at the end of the day, whether we think differently. What matters at the end of the day is, are we honest of heart and are we willing to put ourselves on the line for what we believe in. That is why people come here today and salute you, because you are pure of heart, and you do put your shoulder to the wheel to try to bring about change.

No one ever questions your sincerity or your dedication to your country. That is why I feel so strongly about you.

But it is not as a colleague, is it, Ron, for you and me? RON DELLUMS came to my wedding; and he gave me an elephant, a crystal elephant, which was hard for him to begin with, not give me a crystal donkey, right? He gave me a crystal elephant.

He wrote a note to my wife and to me, and it said: Dear JOHN and Karen, no matter where I am and no matter where you are, you should know that I love you both.

That may be one of the most prized, maybe is the most prized gift that I have ever received from anybody in the House of Representatives. Because no matter where you are, my wife and I love you and yours, your family. You are going to leave here, but you are not going to be able to get away from me, and I am not going to be able to get away from you.

You are a very special man that has been able make all of us feel better about our work in the House of Representatives. But what I am most proud of is that I have made a lifelong friend who will stand with me and I with him no matter what the circumstances, no matter what the day. Whether the sun shall rise or whether the rain shall fall, we will be together for the rest of our lives.

God bless you and Godspeed, friend RON DELLUMS.

Mr. DELAY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Ohio.

I yield to the gentlewoman from Houston, Texas (Ms. JACKSON-LEE).

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. I thank the gentleman from Texas (Mr. DELAY), and I thank my friend, the gentleman from California (Mr. CUNNINGHAM). I think in this time of personal acknowledgment, when we all have issues to discuss, I think we should let the American people realize that we are part of the human family. I have said to someone that I was going to come and hug the gentleman on the floor so that I might get some time to be able to share my thoughts. And I did not hug the gentleman from Texas (Mr. DELAY), but I appreciate him realizing how important it is for me to come and share some very personal moments.

RON, my dilemma and my frustration, my sadness is that I cannot say that I had 30 years or 10 years or even 5 years. But I think I have reminded you on a regular basis that I got by extension some of the kindness and the love and the brotherhood that you shared with our mentor and friend from Texas, Mickey Leland. It was through Mickey that the 18th Congressional District, the people of the 18th Congressional District got to claim RON DELLUMS.

I would say to you that I am sad that you are not my President, not my Secretary of Defense or my national security chairman, if you will, or advisor to the President. I would have liked that, though I respect all that you have done and what you chose to be.

Interestingly enough, we have words on paper, but I want to just say these words as I share briefly with you, this is your story. It is his story, the story is yours of what you have done for this Congress and for the American people. We could come here and humorously talk about the time that he came first to this body and first to the committee that you chaired and had to sit in one chair with another colleague of yours, Pat Schroeder. We can all laugh about that, but we can take the intensity of the time and how unique you were. But we can also take from that that you did not lay down the gauntlet, refusing to continue and persevere, and you wound up as the chairman of the Committee on National Security, now
